Vehicle Marketplace System

Introduction

The purpose of our software system is an online marketplace in which users can freely buy and sell vehicles without the need for a middleman. It is aimed at people who want to sell their vehicles and it is intended to provide an easy platform for buyers and sellers to contact each other.

General Description

The system allows all users to browse an online marketplace of vehicles uploaded by other registered users and contact them via contact information provided with the advertisement by the seller. This allows an easy way for the buyer to browse cars, pick out a suitable one that fits all their personal criteria and get in contact with the seller.

Requirements

For the system to be successful it must have the following:

The system will have two types of users, new users and registered users.

New users can browse the marketplace and register a new account.

Users can log into their registered accounts.

Registered users can place advertisements with pictures, a description, and various relevant details about the vehicle including its type, mileage and engine size.

Registered users can contact sellers and review other registered users.

When browsing the marketplace, a filter can be applied to narrow the user's search.

When registering an account users must first verify their details.
